

Dear Liberty Friend,

Len Lindstrom, President CEO of Liberty International Mineral Corporation would like to invite you to drop by the Liberty Booth # B-8 and to also attend the exciting “Liberty’s Top Four Priority Gold and Polymetallic Projects” presentation to delegates and fund managers on December 2nd in the Presenters Hall at:

Mines and Money World Mining Congress December 1 – 3, 2008 London, England

Liberty International Mineral Corporation is very pleased to be hosting Exhibition Booth # B8 at the upcoming Mines and Money conference in London, England.

Len Lindstrom, President & CEO, has the honor of speaking to the conference delegates on December 2, 2008 with a highly exciting and informative review of Liberty’s top two gold projects in West Africa and the Company’s top two priority polymetallic projects in Canada and to present the progress and advances the Company continues to make despite the challenges presented by the current market.

The Mines and Money conference, now in its 6th year, is a highly popular, well-established and prestigious event where real partnerships and deals are established. The conference and exhibition is designed specifically to bring the mining and finance communities together. It is the essential meeting place not only to network, but to debate, learn and to gain insight into the relevant, key issues in the market place. The exhibition will host over 200 companies from exploration, mining and associated industries, providing an unrivaled platform for networking and making important business contacts.

"The Mines and Money conference in London is now the leading forum for mining companies, internationally, to meet European mining investors and fund managers"

George Rogers, Commodities and Resource Finance, Capital Markets, Investec Bank

"We continue to be impressed with the quality and number of attendees who participate. Mines & Money and our resources businesses benefit greatly from our involvement"

Thys Terblanche, Head of Mining & Metals, Standard Bank
